DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1-4, 7, 8 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 5971272 to Hsiao.

As per claims 1, 4, 8 and 16, Hsiao discloses a database of access codes (fig. 1A, item 40), a random character generator (fig. 1A, item 50), means for communicating the generated sequence (fig. 1A, item 60), means for receiving an offset (fig. 1A, item 70) and means for combining the offset with the random character sequence (col. 8, lines 9-20).

As per claim 2, see fig. 1A, item 70.

As per claim 3, see fig. 1A, item 20.

As per claim 7, see fig. 2, item 260).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2132

Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hsiao in view of the examiner taking official notice.

As per claims 5 and 6, Hsiao does not specifically disclose these limitations. The examiner, however, takes official notice that these limitations are well known in the prior art.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 9-15, 17-22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Thomas R. Peeso whose telephone number is 571 272-3809. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon.-Fri, 7:00 to 3:30 .
